

How to join The FA Pilot Coaches' Club for Licensed Football Coaches ...

To join The FA Coaches' Club for Licensed Football Coaches you will need to apply through your local County FA website. Users can find the website address of their County FA by going to <http://www.thefa.com/GetIntoFootball/CountyFA/CountyContacts>.

Those that are local to London or West Riding County FA should use one of the other 48 websites as their current website does not include the Member Services functionality. Follow the instructions below to log in and complete your licence.

Stage 1: Request Access

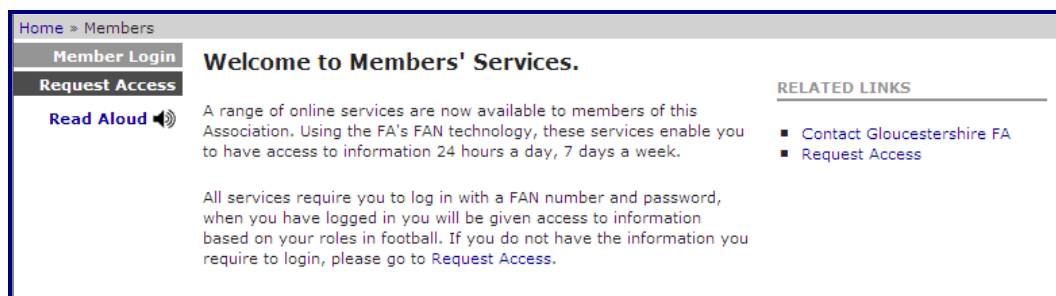

In order to access Members' Services you will need to firstly request access. If you already know your FAN and password then go straight to stage 2.

Step 1: Open any web-browser and enter your chosen County's website address into the web address bar. (Example below will be using www.gloucestershirefa.com).

Step 2: Click on the Members section of the website.

Step 3: Click on the Request Access menu item.

Step 4: Click on the Coach menu item.

Step 6: Licence Accreditations

The second step is to check your FA Accreditations and your licence level is correct. The top grid displays the accreditations you require to achieve a FA Licence and the bottom grid shows the Accreditations that we have on record.

The level of your licence depends on your highest coaching qualification. For example, if your highest Coaching qualification is a 1st4sport Level Certificate in Coaching Football then you will be licensed at Level 1. If you a Pro Licence holder then you will be licensed at Level 5.

If any of the accreditations are incorrect or not displayed email FALicenceQuery@TheFA.com with details of the Accreditation and a copy of the certificate.
